

Unleashing the Sporty Spirit in Satyans

The excitement mounted to a fever pitch among the students and the teachers who had gathered in a spirit of solidarity and camaraderie to witness and participate in the 13th Annual Athletic Meet on 26th October, 2017. Adhering to keep alive the mission of the school to nurture team players with the right blend of collaboration, cooperation and competitiveness, the students of class PV-XII presented an undaunted display of sports. The playground looked like a cosmic coliseum where the physically fit Satyans in fine fettle played each other off to satisfy their yearn to take home the coveted trophy in various field and track events. The function started with the unfurling of the school flag by Mrs. Bhupinder Gogia, Principal, Sat Paul Mittal School. She further declared the 13th Annual Sports Meet open. The Principal and the august gathering were welcomed by the Sports Captain Boys, Purvang Dada. The spirited Satyans led by the Sports Captain, took an oath to abide by and respect the rules in the true spirit of sportsmanship for the glory of sport and honour of the school. The cherubs of class PV, UPVAN and I took part in various racing events like Fruit/Animal Basket Race, Dog and Bone Race, Pick the Cloth race etc. While on one hand, the faces of the tiny tots were bubbling with excitement with the desire to succeed, the teachers were motivating them to do their best and win prizes. The sporty Satyans enthusiastically participated in races like Ball Balancing, Balloon Popping and Jumbled race. Their zest and enthusiasm was evident in 50, 100, 200 and 400 meter races. The relay race was the most awaited event of the day and kept the spirit of healthy competition alive. The winners were honoured with gold, silver and bronze medals. There was 100% participation in Sports day as all Satyans from PV-IX participated in at least one event of the sports day. The Tug-Of-War among the Satyans of Satluj, Ravi, Beas and Chenab received an overwhelming response and represented the strong bond among the teams. The campus reverberated with excitement as the Satyans cheered for their fellow mates. The pique of the show was the announcement of the Cock House trophy. Ravi

House was declared as the Cock House. Vasvi Singhal and Eklavya Arora of Class V were declared the Best Athletes in the Junior Wing. Shums Raichangair of Class VIII, Kripa Gandhi of Class X and Aalamnoor Singh and Bhanu Pratap Singh of Class XII were declared the Best Athlete in Group A, B and C Boys Category. Siya Trehan of Class VIII and Sejal Berry of Class XII were declared the Best Athlete in Group A and C Girls Category. Hiyanoor Ghosh of Class X and Anousha Garg of Class IX shared the Best Athlete Trophy in Group B Girls Category. The Satyans who brought laurels to the school at National, State and District level were also honoured. Mrs. Bhupinder Gogia, Principal, Sat Paul Mittal School, congratulated the winners. She exhorted the students to have a high aim in life and develop global ideas and thinking. She further stressed upon the importance of sports in today's tech-savy world and expressed her hope that the new generation will bring a new revolution in the world and succeed in binding the entire humanity with the cord of unity. The vote of thanks was proposed by Nazia Bajaj, Sports Captain Girls. She expressed her gratitude to everyone who contributed their services for the grand success of the mega event. The show was an amalgamation of renditions made by the zealous Satyans in the field of sports and performing arts. The function ended with the school song followed by the national anthem.
