

Alumni recalled old good days

The Alumni Meet was organized at Sat Paul Mittal School. The Alumni participated in formal and informal discussion. They gave their thoughts and opinions about college admissions, life at college to the passing out batch and +1 students. Alumnus Jowan Naaz, a young politician told how the school has evolved over time as she was from the first batch. Alumnus Sholab Arora also enlightened with his inspiring words leading to career success. Comperers, Diva Arora and Parn Narang played a game with the ex-Satyans where they questioned them about their days in school. To mark the occasion, Crisalida, the school newsletter was also launched. The Satyan shop was also brought into existence. The presence of Alumni from the batches 2011-18 left unforgettable memories to be cherished forever.
