

CLASS I-FORM ASSEMBLY – ‘ALICE IN MODERNLAND’

“Free the child’s potential and you will transform him into the world” - Maria Montessori

Keeping in consonance with the axiom, the Form Assembly of the students of Class I of Sat Paul Mittal School was held on 17th May, 2019 in the Mittal Auditorium. The students portrayed the modern version of famous tale “Alice in Wonderland” by Lewis Carroll which depicted the deleterious effects of evolving technology, brand consciousness and high expectations from parents and peers. The children of Class I astounded the audience with their soulful performance making them realize that the technology has surpassed the ethical capacity of individuals and has inflicted catastrophic amount of damage.

The young Satyans depicted the play Alice in Modernland wherein the children performed with full zeal and enthusiasm. It was a delight to see the confident kid models walk the runway and express their fashion styles through the fashion show. This was followed by a mellifluous song titled “Healthy food will make you smile” which fascinated the audience. The event concluded with a foot tapping dance number ‘Let it go’ which portrayed that childhood is all about purity and innocence.

The Form Assembly was a huge success which brought out the innate creativity of the children. It was indeed a treat for the parents to enjoy the stupendous performance of their kids. The programme culminated with the National Anthem.
