

Form Assembly Class IV- 'Home Alone'

'Family is not an important thing, it is everything.' The essence of this thought was brought to life by the Satyans of Class IV during their form assembly- "Home Alone" which was held on 30th August, 2019 in the Mittal Auditorium. The assembly proved to be a mixture of humor and pain, human instincts and emotions. It clearly depicted that with the growing age, we have forgotten the importance of petty things in our life. Everyone claims to "live alone." Home Alone is all surrounded around the idea that it's the little things in life that end up teaching us the biggest lessons. It is necessary to acknowledge and appreciate the little things, if you fail to do so, you lose sight of what really matters and what's truly beautiful and special. The one-hour event brought to life the mischiefs of the protagonist, Sid when his parents were not at home. This journey culminates with the realization on the part of Sid, the importance of each and every thing in life. The Satyans portrayed the emotions with their enthralling performances. The august gathering was given a warm welcome by the Satyans .The event started with the lighting of the lamp, facilitated by the parents. The teachers along with the students worked very hard to put up a great show. The audience was left spell bound with their mesmerizing songs and foot tapping energetic performances. In the end, the Satyans proposed the vote of thanks emphasizing on the reality that we should not forget that our parents love us, and all they want is the best for us.

vote of thanks emphasizing on the reality that we should not forget that our parents love us, and all they want is the best for us.