

Nehru Sidhant Kender Trust organized 'Yuva Tarang 2019 Auditions' at Sat Paul Mittal School

It has been rightly said by Dietrich Bonhoeffer, "Music... will help dissolve your perplexities and purify your character and sensibilities, and in time of care and sorrow, will keep a fountain of joy alive in you."

In sync with this ideology, Nehru Sidhant Kender Trust organized 'Yuva Tarang 2019 Auditions' at Sat Paul Mittal School on 26th September, 2019. Ms. Bhupinder Gogia, Principal, Sat Paul Mittal School welcomed the august gathering.

Nehru Sidhant Kender Trust has always contributed to the society by promoting the rich cultural heritage of India among the common masses. "Yuva Tarang" is an initiative in this direction to take this great cultural legacy of India forward and bring to the forefront all the young artists who can bridge the gap between aspirations and reality. Nehru Sidhant Kender Trust supports the artistic achievement of the next generation by providing an opportunity to them to showcase their musical prowess. Around 50 participants gave the auditions and the selected ones would perform in the final round going to be held in November.

The members of Nehru Sidhant Kender Trust were present on the occasion. Mr. NC Jain, Secretary, Nehru Sidhant Kender Trust proposed a vote of thanks and applauded the commendable efforts of the participants. The event culminated with the National Anthem.
