

Sat Paul Mittal School ranked as the No. 1 in Punjab

Sat Paul Mittal School, a leading Co-Ed day school of India which has over the years evolved into an institution of academic excellence added yet another feather in its cap. In the 13th Annual event held on Sunday at The Leela Ambience, Gurgaon, the reputed 'Education World' magazine has ranked Sat Paul Mittal School, Ludhiana as the 'Best School' amongst CBSE and ICSE schools in Punjab. Sat Paul Mittal School, Ludhiana has ranked as no. 1 in Punjab and no.71 in India in the Co-Ed day school category in the Indian School ranking 2019-20. Education World has also ranked Sat Paul Mittal School among India's Top 10 (Rank: 7) Design Thinking Leaders.

Education World, a human development magazine, has been ranking educational institutions (primary-secondary schools) for the past thirteen years. The survey was based on a sample respondent database of 12,213 educationists, principals, teachers, parents and students from across 28 major cities and education hubs across the country. They were interviewed to rate the shortlisted schools on a variety of parameters, including academic reputation, faculty competence, leadership qualities, life skills, safety and hygiene, community service, internationalism, value for money, sports education and infrastructure. The survey classified schools in four categories – day co-ed, day-cum-boarding, girls and boys schools.

Ms. Bhupinder Gogia, Principal, Sat Paul Mittal School, on receiving the award said, "The achievement of the school is a validation of the vision and commitment of the Management and the efforts put by the teachers to be the institution of excellence over the past decade to provide an enriching school experience to the students. The award is a testimony of the energy, synergy and path breaking ideas that takes the school forward."
