

Independence Day celebrated at Sat Paul Mittal School with “The New Normal”

Sat Paul Mittal School decided to salute the nation and its freedom fighters by holding a unique virtual cultural show as a mark of respect for 73 years of India’s independence.

The students and their parents from classes II-V logged in via the Microsoft Teams live session and watched the session and watched the cultural programme that was simply mesmerising. The students of the Junior school sang the patriotic songs with utmost passion and perfection. The speeches were heart-touching and the poems were soul-stirring. The live streaming of the whole programme was a massive accomplishment in itself.

The students participated in a virtual cultural event comprising of a speech in English, Solo Songs, Dance Performances, Hindi Poem and the declaration of various results of the competitions that were held as a part of the Independence Day celebrations over the past one week. An Inter-class Patriotic Poem Competition for class VII was also organized to maintain the vehemence of 74th Independence day amongst students.

The Department of Drinking Water and Sanitation (DDWS), Ministry of Jal Shakti organized a Gandagi Mukht Bharat campaign - a week long programme to promote 'SWATCHATTA' from 8th August to 15th August, 2020. During this campaign, an Online Painting Competition for Classes VI to VIII and Essay Writing Competition for Classes IX to XII were being conducted on the theme of "Gandagi Mukht Mera Gaon" on 13th August, 2020. The winners of both the competitions would be felicitated at National level on 2nd October, 2020

The celebrations were adequately elaborate to instil a patriotic fervour among the students, parents and teachers. While the students were shown a motivational video on India's freedom struggle on this occasion, it was also dedicated to those who have been at the frontline of this crisis (soldiers, doctors, nurses, etc).

Mrs. Bhupinder Gogia, Principal, Sat Paul Mittal School expressed her confidence that India will fight all its foes unitedly and will definitely emerge victorious. The program came to an end with the students singing the National Anthem mellifluously.
