

Kudos to the winners of Virtual Business Conclave organised by Learning Paths School, Mohali

Bringing laurels to the city, the students of Sat Paul Mittal School, Ludhiana bagged awards at the Virtual Business Conclave organised by Learning Paths School, Mohali. Tahira Grewal of Class XI-D grabbed the first position in Point of View Presentation competition and Ria Kansal of Class XI-B bagged the third position in the Corporate Roadies competition.

The 4th Edition of Virtual Business Conclave, Inter school Business Congregation Competition related to Business acumen, Marketing skills and Work Readiness Skill Demonstration was an attempt to bring together the creative potential of young minds and unleash their innovative and entrepreneurial potential. The Class X, XI and XII students from various schools across the Northern India fought it out in challenging business events, Corporate Roadies (Work Readiness Skill Demonstration) and IntellecVIEW (Point of View Presentation).

From brainstorming events to brain teasing quiz, from creative thinking to critical thinking, it was a wonderful opportunity to obtain exposure to the real business world and exchange ideas, knowledge and skills with fellow competitors and eminent corporate personalities. The competitions were informative and knowledge enriching for the participants. The students displayed ecstatic spirit and enjoyed the events to the fullest.
