

Alumni Meet@Sat Paul Mittal School: Virtual Homecoming

The immediate adoption of remote online work culture has become the new norm across the globe. In the spirit of delving into the golden time spent at school, Sat Paul Mittal School once again celebrated its triumph over the challenges of unprecedented times as it became a proud host to the glittering the virtual Alumni Meet organized on 23rd December, 2020. Unleashing the power of the web and breaking the geographical constraints, the school gave an opportunity to the Satyans to connect with the alma mater and share the richness of their journey. Even the tyrannical present times could not dampen the high spirits of the participants as around 500 Satyans became the part of this event.

Mr. Bipin Gupta, Vice-Chairman, Governing Council, Sat Paul Mittal School inaugurated the function and welcomed the participants to this mega event. He welcomed the alumni and congratulated them on their various accomplishments. He shared his happiness and proud feeling on seeing the alumni participating enthusiastically in the Alumni Meet. The event witnessed a divine beginning with an invocation performance by Malaika Chhabra, Chetna Aggarwal and Tanya (Batch 2016-17). This was followed by a panel discussion which was held to give an insight into the school life of the graduates and inspire others with their stories. Amreen Kohli, Mehak Bakhshi, Krisha Mehra, Nipun Jain and Raghav Kharbanda were invited to speak about their own struggles and their journey towards empowerment. Biragam Singh and Purnima Chopra moderated the entire session as the alumni interacted with the audience and equipped with acumen which would help the Satyans in coming future. The audience also witnessed the scintillating dance performance by Bani Batra (Batch 2019-20) and a melodious song by Amolika Saini (2015-16). A small fun segment was organized for the alumni as they were invited to participate in the Nostalgia Quiz. Nostalgia Quiz took the Alumni down to the memory lanes. This quiz was like a breath of fresh air for the students as they thoroughly enjoyed each bit of it. The winners of the quiz were Prabhseerat Kaur, Vidoshi

Jain, Purnima Chopra, Yoksha Goyal and Jayant Chaudhary (2017-18). The participants for the Flipgrid were Ishita Bajaj, Dashamnoor and Purnima Chopra (2018-19).

A small alumni engagement video was played for them which made them nostalgic and helped them to go down the memory lane and cherish the school memories. . The much awaited and the highlight of the show was the stand up by Mr. Jaspreet Singh, a renowned Stand-up Comedian who tickled the funny bone of the audience with his performance.

The cynosure of all eyes was the zestful bhangra performance by Aryan Baweja and Avni Gupta (Batch 2019-20) who mesmerised the audience with his foot tapping number. He clearly left the audience in awe.

The event headed to a closure as the Vote of Thanks was delivered by Purnima Chopra (Batch2019-20). She thanked the school authorities for organising the token of love and gave the alumni lifelong memories and rejuvenated their old broken connections with school pals.

The alumni of Sat Paul Mittal School is truly like a tree with the branches aiming to reach the sky but the roots grounded down from where it began. The show was indeed a great success.
