

Namya won The Best Delegate Award in UNESCO Center for Peace - Virtual Summer Camp Program

Namya Joshi, a student of Grade IX of Sat Paul Mittal School, once again brought laurels to the school by winning the coveted 'The Best Delegate Award' in IMUN in UNESCO Center for Peace, New York- Virtual Summer Camp program held at New York from 19th July to 25th July, 2021. The Diana Award 2021 winner, Namya defied age norms, demonstrated exceptional Leadership Skills, thereby, made her presence felt in one-of-a-kind intellectual and social conference gathering, the best and the brightest young minds around the globe in #NewYorkCity#WashingtonDC.

Summer program took place online via zoom. Around 500 participants focussed critically on scientific fields, human rights, globalization in its economic, political and cultural dimensions, and examine the challenges of achieving best sustainable practices. Participating in the program became more stimulating and enriching for Namya as she learnt about the nuances of public speaking as well as team building skills from the top notch online speakers across the globe.

Namya represented French Fourth Republic in the United Nations Historical Security Council (UNHSC) and won 'The Best Delegate Award'. She led a team of 24 members to create a UCP Project on Eradicate Poverty by providing Skill Based Learning and was the youngest in the group. Namya impressed all with her persistent and dynamic approach while working in a team set-up. Her conviction and oratory skills made The Chair and other delegates of UNHSC applauded her for the debating skills.
