

Celebrations of the 75th Independence Day at Sat Paul Mittal School

The 75th Independence Day of India was celebrated in solemn and dignified demeanour at Sat Paul Mittal School. A special assembly was organized wherein the Satyans expressed their love for their country through patriotic songs, role-plays and dance performances.

The Principal, Ms. Bhupinder Gogia, accompanied by staff members, unfurled the tricolour followed by the National Anthem. To pay a tribute to the soldiers, the song 'Saare Jahan Se Acha' was sung by the students in their melodious voice which touched the hearts of all and evoked a feeling of patriotism. This entailed a celebration including a patriotic group songs, poem recitation, admad showcase based on the national initiatives and schemes followed by mesmerizing dance performances by the students. The tiny tots of pre-primary showcased their respect and love towards their nation by dressing up as their favourite national personages. Not only this, various activities were also conducted for the Junior School students to mark the day. The aim behind this celebration was to instil patriotism and take pride in being an 'Indian'. The students were very clear in expressing their ideas that we must mark the day and respect those freedom fighters who gave their lives for their country. An exhibition was put up based on the five themes of Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav- Freedom Struggle, Ideas@75, Resolve@75, Actions@75 and Achievements@75.

The celebrations concluded with inspiring words of the Principal, Ms. Bhupinder Gogia, Sat Paul Mittal School. She expressed her confidence that India will fight all its foes unitedly and will definitely emerge victorious. She emphasized that the behaviour of an individual towards the others is of utmost importance and the legacy that we have inherited from our elders should not die and we should take pride in being an Indian.
