

Sat Paul Mittal School, Ludhiana was honoured with the Award for Best Co-Educational School in Northern India by Brand Achievers recently. Dedicated to ensuring holistic development of the students, both in the academic and co-curricular field, the Award further added to the brilliance of the institution.

After a thorough review of various parameters, such as, curriculum, infrastructure and teacher-student dynamics, 24 MRC (Media Research Corporation) granted the Award to the school. An acknowledgement of determination, effort and hard work, the Award served as a source of motivation and encouragement for the Satyans.

The School Principal, Mrs. Bhupinder Gogia, congratulated the staff and students for this glorious achievement. Aptly describing such accomplishments as “a driving force”, she emphasised on the need for making consistent endeavours towards excellence and perfection.

The Brand Achievers Awards is an initiative that establishes the credibility of the winners and recognises their commitment to deliver the very best to their stakeholders.
