From the Principal's desk...

Sat Paul Mittal School has profound belief in empowerment and has always empowered the students to create, innovate and excel. The monthly newsletter showcases the commendable efforts of the Satyans, right from the designing to the excellence acquired in the content and the coverage of all the events in the school. I would like to congratulate the teachers and students of the Editorial Board and the Press Club for coming out with their new venture-a monthly newsletter: The Satyan Mirror [LITE], which is completely in-house, conceptualized, designed and printed in the school itself. I hope the journey of the newsletter will be as eventful and successful as all the other initiatives taken up by the school.

15 August: Independence: Freedom. Freedom like the birds to fly high, freedom you and me crave. Speaking of which, I asked for freedom of speech, and lo! The [LITE] version is completely in-house as we call it. It's free from any formalities...!! It's about you! Made of you, for you, by you with things that you wanna know! It's about putting unnecessary "!!! & ..." anywhere and everywhere. It speaks a language that has meaning for our audience, you! It's a place where we place your articles and opinions first and the reports later. And now that you know whom to where your stuff goes, make sure you contribute! Mail us, message us, share it on the wall or even tweet it! We'll pick up your articles wherever, whenever, HOWEVER, but DO SEND. This thing is something you would pick-up and READ! Don't disappoint me guys, DO READ and DO SEND! Anyway, Happy Reading...!! :D — at Sat Paul Mittal School month gone by

Finally the holidays are over!! And we are back to school. After chilling and enjoying for almost one and a half month, it was indeed a tough job to wake up in the morning and get ready to go to school. But as soon as we enter the school campus, we are super excited to start our session. No doubt, we will have to do lots of homework, wake up early in the morning and study for endless hours but during holidays, we do miss the school. With so many competitions up on chart, I am sure, we all are going to enjoy every minute spent in the campus!!

DAISIES

At evening when I go to bed
I see the stars shine overhead;
They are little daisies white,
That dot the meadow of the night.

And often while I'm dreaming so,
Across the sky the moon will go;
It is a lady, sweet and fair,
Who comes to gather daisies there.

For, when at morning I arise,
There's not a star left in the skies;
She's picked them all and drop them down

Into the meadows of the town.

SUCCESS FOR SURE

Read, but write more,
Talk, but think more,
Play, but study more
Eat, but chew more,
Weep, but laugh more,
Sleep, but work more,
And I promise you health for sure.

Hate, but love more,
Order, but obey more,
Punish, but reward more,
Consume, but produce more,
And I promise you respect for sure.

LIVING LIFE

Life is too short to complain,
Learn to bear a little pain.

If you're happy,
Life's a thousand years
If you're gloomy,
Life's just a few seconds

Welcome each problem with big smiles,
Which will help you travel a thousand miles...

Live each moment as if it were your last

Show your enthusiasm,
Ignore sarcasm.

Because you never know
when this journey ends!

June 2012 aka THE EURO 2012 PERIOD

Summer vacations are all about bringing back an environment that encourages fun and a state of mind that is open to it. After the long and hectic schedule, summers provide a new wave of enthusiasm to a person. It is this time when he fills himself with zeal and enjoys to the fullest. But do you know when do I feel this exuberance? It's when I watch soccer! As usual I got my boost of adrenalin watching the Euro 2012. Spain won Euro 2012 and, in doing so, proved that they are just too good. Winning a historic three major tournaments in a row, in 10 knockout-round matches over those three tournaments, Spain has not allowed a single goal. When the primary criticism against a team is that their control of matches is so utterly complete that the results are both boring and inevitable, it's actually the highest compliment imaginable.

It's all those surreal facts and figures that prove the all-consuming depth of Spain's domination over the last four years. Of course, it's impossible to say whether the planet and the sport will exist long enough for a team to duplicate or somehow top what Spain has achieved in this span, but regardless of that or how Spain compare to some of the great Brazil teams, this has truly been a special period to witness.
